

2017 Walpole Day Parade Grand Marshal Essay Contest!

Calling all kids!!! Have you watched the Walpole Day Parade year after year thinking about the glory that would come from being the Grand Marshal of Walpole Day? This year's Grand Marshal could be you! The Walpole Recreation Department is hosting an Essay Contest for the Walpole Day Parade Grand Marshal and wants to know...“What Does Walpole Mean to You?” Just be yourself, IN 250 WORDS OR LESS, and you could be riding front and center, in the Walpole Day Parade in your choice of vehicle; a Police Cruiser or a Fire Truck. The Grand Marshal will be announced the week of April 10th.

Topic: “What does Walpole mean to you?”

Guidelines: Submissions can be no more than 250 words
Please include the following with each essay:
Name
Age/Grade
Address
Contact Number/Email Address

Eligibility: Open to Walpole Residents ONLY, Grades K – 12

Deadline: Friday, March 3rd

Send to: Walpole Recreation
Attention: Arielle Carney
135 School Street
Walpole, MA 02081